There are four different Milligan groups that settled in the County of Tannworth and Addington only in the 19th century. They are:

1. William Milligan (the one on this chart) who came to Ernestown or Kingston area from Ireland in early 1830's. He then moved to Tannworth area in 1840's. He was accompanied by his sisters Mary and Margaret (probably twins). Mary married Dan Kilmore, Margaret married Joseph Rogers. Not connected with Milligan families mentioned above.
2. William Milligan who came from Ireland in the 1840's and settled near Tannworth. He was accompanied by his wife Maria McKim and his oldest child James.
3. A Milligan family that settled near Centerville, Camden Township. A descendant lived in Newburgh in the 1830's. Christian names often different from other Milligans.
4. A Milligan family of U.E.L. stock. a member of this family was shown as Hugh Milligan living on lot 27, concession 1 Ernestown (actually in Lake Ontario) in 1857 census. His son Samuel Milligan had taken over this farm in 1878 Atlas.

Joseph Rogers arrived in Sheffield alone in 1840's. A brother was buried at sea on the way over. 1851 Census indicates he was living on 100 acres, 20 acres of which was cleared. His main crops were peas, oats, and potatoes. He was Anglican at first. Margaret Milligan was Presbyterian and family was raised Presbyterian. In later years, he had a severe back injury in an accident involving a team of horses. Margaret Rogers and Miss Mary Jane Rogers took care of him. He required a lot of lifting. Margaret Milligan came from Ireland with brother William and sister Mary. William's second wife was Eliza Clark. Mary married Don Gilmore. They were all buried in Raidville cemetery. For the first 100 yrs, it is believed no relatives with name of Rogers moved into the County.

Dear Dr. Burleigh -

replied Mar 27/76
of my file, but not considered of value to him

We appreciate your letter very much. We are enclosing a photostat copy of all the material that we have on Milligans.

After a thorough enquiry with the living descendants of William Milligan, ^{Shelburne} we continue to be unable to find the following:

- (1) His year of birth and year of death and name of cemetery.
- (2) The name of his first wife as well as her year of birth, year of death, and name of cemetery. We believe she died before 1862.

We would be glad of any assistance or suggestions that you can give us for (1) and (2). The remaining material can be very likely obtained during the summer.

The sheet on Margaret Milligan (who married Joseph Rogers) has all the material that we have been asking for. It may be extended at a later date to cover the present young generation.

I have been assembling material on a number of families (first 4 generations). I wish to show you this material so that you can have a photostat copy of anything that I have. I will take this material to Kingston on a trip sometime this summer. If you are in Toronto, we would be glad to have you visit us. Our Toronto phone is 249-1684.

Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

Yours sincerely
Edwin A. S. Galbraith

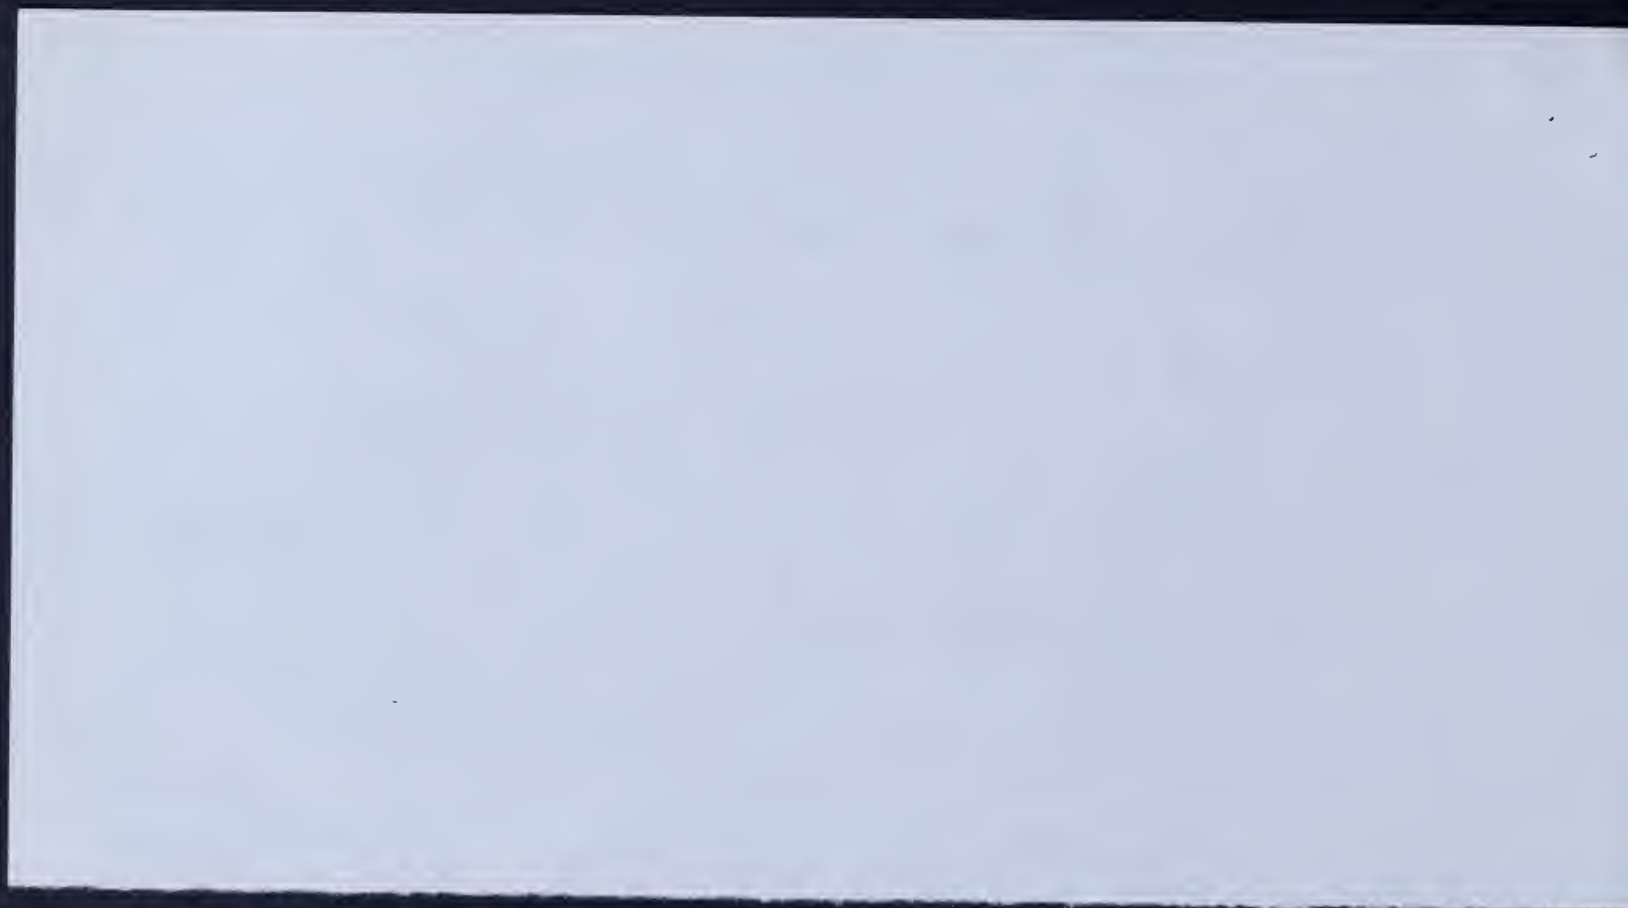

P.S. Our William Milligan had sister Margaret that lived in period (1825-1872) E.S.

OBITUARY

JAMES W. MILLIGAN

James W. Milligan, 71, of Bath, who died recently at Kingston Hotel Dieu Hospital following a lengthy illness, was buried in Union Cemetery.

He was born at Napanee, a son of the late Arnold Milligan and his wife, the former Ruth Exley.

A former security guard at the CIL plant in Millhaven, he retired from the post two years ago. Mr. Milligan, a veteran of the First World War, was a member of the United Church.

Surviving are his wife, the former Ida Smith; two brothers, John, his twin, of Penticton, BC, and Walter, Auckland, NZ. Another brother, George, of Burnaby, BC, predeceased him.

Pall-bearers were Clarence Hegadorn, Herbert Weese, Joseph Thompson, David Thompson, Rodney Chittenden and Lester Hogle.

TAMWORTH — The funeral of Adam Milligan, 88, who died here recently at the home of his son, Roy, was held March 11 in Trinity United Church with interment in the family plot.

Mr. Milligan, the last member of his generation, was born in Sheffield Township near Tamworth. He was a son of the late Robert J. Milligan and his wife, the former Elizabeth Stinson.

Surviving are three sons, Clarence, a Federal member of parliament, Napanee; Claude, Kingston; G. Roy, of Tamworth, and a foster daughter, Mrs. Donald (Vera) McLaughlin, Tamworth.

He was predeceased in 1943 by his wife, the former Jennie Watters, whom he married in 1896 and four brothers, Robert, Albert, Thomas and George.

Mr. Milligan resided all his life near Tamworth and farmed until his retirement a few years ago.

Pastor L. Wood officiated at the 2:30 p.m. service in Trinity United Church.

Pall-bearers were J. R. Adair, Sidney True, Oran Moss, Ernest Gamman, Arthur Johnston and Stanley Haggerty.

Funeral service for well-known amateur radio operator Ralph Bruce Smith was held March 30 from the Robert B. Cullen funeral home to Cataraqui cemetery. Rev. Ronald Vatcher officiated.

Mr. Smith, 46, died suddenly March 28 at his home, 353 Albert street. He is survived by his wife Lenora and a son James Smith, ham, step-daughter Lucretia Vanston, a sister Hunter of Kingston. Mrs. Irene Lorton, N.B., his step-mother; Sarah Smith of Gagetown, Edgar and Ivan of Lancaster, step-brother, Everett St. John; two step-daughters, Dorothy Tippitt and Mrs. Annie Rickert, N.B.; two grandsons, Alan Vanston and John of Kingston.

He was born the son of Edgar A. and Emily A. Hampton. He lived in Hampton since 1948, and was employed as an area inspector, supervising the electrical wiring installation for municipalities of Maryland. He has worked for Deseronto, Gananoque, Deseronto and Sharbot Lake. He is a member of the licensing board for the electrical trade.

Mr. Smith was a member of the Princess Street Church, Cataraqui Locals 92, AF and AM, Masons and the Kingston Amateur Club, of which he was president.

His interests in amateur radio were particularly directed to the teaching and helping younger members of the radio hobby. He was a keen participant in civil defence communications and operated, at his own expense, a mobile radio unit in his car for this purpose.

A Masonic service was for Mr. Smith on Mar Pall-bearers at the Ma
